

College Search Information

The College Board - <http://www.collegeboard.com>

Your connection to college success. The authority on SAT dates, registration and preparation. The site also offers a wealth of college search and financial aid information.

Campus Tours - <http://www.campustours.com/>

This site offers virtual college tours and academic multimedia covering hundreds of colleges and universities

Common Application - <http://www.commonapp.org>

The official site from which you can download the application, view the list of participating colleges, and get application information.

Embark - <http://www.embark.com>

This site includes a college search, online applications, test prep information, financial aid, and scholarship information.

Peterson's - <http://www.petersons.com>.

The site includes a college search, information on financial aid, test prep information, online applications, and information on colleges. Also includes information on careers and a great source for information on summer programs.

College Week Live - <http://www.collegeweeklive.com/>

College fairs held online where students can search colleges and visit with college admissions experts online. SAT and ACT tips and information.